Here we go again
It's you and I alone
You take me to the point of no return.
I question where you stand
How can you complain
I wonder if you're ever gonna learn.

It's a cryin' shame all right
We've come so far to
Be so far away.
You wake me in the middle of the night
So don't be surprised
When you hear me sayin'

Chorus
Will you will you will you or won't you
Do you wanna do it or don't you
Will you will you will you, I want you
Do you wanna do it or don't you

First you say you're with me
Then you disappear
And I'm the fool who wants to carry on
But I can't say goodbye
After all this time
Are we at the ending of our song.

It's a cryin' shame all right
We've come so far to be here tonight
You wake me in the middle of my dreams
So don't be surprised
When you hear me screamin'!

Chorus

Something inside you that's dying to get out
There's more to you than anyone knows about
So why you trying to keep it a secret
You're still afraid of who you are
But you dream about being a Broadway star
Well you already are, you got what it takes

Oh-oh, let it go
Oh-oh, just let it go

Private school, such a gifted child
Working all night you never got wild
What's the point when you're not really happy
Yea you were the one with the high IQ
But now you discover another you
That wants to break out, wants to cut loose
Make it all simple and pour on the juice.

Oh-oh, let it go
Oh-oh, just let it go

You may know what you're doing
There's no guarantee
You won't have to explain
The things that you believe

Sometimes it's worth the fight
For what you know is right
Maybe there's something
New for you to see

Chorus
You might be wrong but it's alright
Yes it's alright
You might be right when it's all wrong
And that's alright

You can always say you're sorry
Yea you make the choice
Just don't walk away now
Thinkin' no one understands you

We all make mistakes
It's not so hard to take
Don't let it break your world in two

Chorus
Stand up and speak your mind
Don't bother wasting time
And don't be afraid to lay it on the line

Chorus

You try to reach me in another language
Can't you talk to me in English
Can't you tell me how you feel
And get to the point

You and I are full of anguish
Maybe you'd like me to vanish
Where do I go
Where can I hide

Givin' it back
Givin' it back, back to you
Givin' it back

As long as we have been together
I always thought you were clever
Tell me I'm not a fool to Love you this way

Our line has gotten tangled
Maybe there's another angle
Is there any kind of light
At the end of the tunnel
Oh baby tell me it's O.K. now

Givin' it back
Givin' it back, back to you
Givin' it back
Givin' it back, back to you

Back where it came from
I'm layin it on the line
Back where it came from
You figure it out this time
Back where it came from
I'm givin' it back to you

Music
Takin us away
But don't ask me
I cannot explain
Where it's from
Where we go
I don't know

Out of our hands
No way to explain it
No way to maintain it
Just grab it while you can

Out of our hands
When the music finds you
It always will remind you
It's out of our hands

There is magic
When everybody plays
But don't ask me
'Cause I cannot explain
Where we go
I don't know

Out of our hands
No way to explain it

Out of our hands
In spite of all our plans

Saw you dancin' in the square
And you saw me standin' there
I been watchin' you all day
And I want you to dance my way
Now baby, if you were mine we'd go

On & on
All night long
On & on, dancing

I saw your flashing gypsy eyes
You caught me, I'm hypnotized
You took my hand and away we danced
Never felt such sweet romance
Oh Darling I'm under your spell. We go

On & on
All night long
On & on, dancing
Dance the night away.

I see that look, I know there's evil on your mind
And now you wanna get me in the mood
Well I'm not so hard to reach, just take a little time
I know you will, gonna leave it up to you.
'Cause all you got to do, is just

Talk to me right
When you wanna get next to me
Just talk to me right
Soft and low
C'mon and whisper in my ear
All the things that I long to hear
And talk to me right, and let me know

Tell me that you want me, tell me there's something that you need
And tell me, baby, watcha gonna do for me.
It makes me weak to hear you say it tenderly
You're gonna satisfy all my crazy dreams
Yea, you're gonna get to me, if you just

Talk to me right
Just talk to me right all night long.
I wanna know what's on your mind
Say we got all night
Gonna take our time so
Talk to me right and turn me on.

ANOTHER WORLD

Stef Birnbaum
Bass: John Pierce
Drums: David Perper
Keyboards: Peter Wolf
Cory Leros

Called you up just the other day
And you told me you're not there
It's kind of crazy but when you get like that
You could be anywhere
People talk about the things you do
Say you're eccentric, that's for sure
But I know you well enough to know
It doesn't bother you, you're in another world

In another world
You're losing all sense of time
In another world
You're leaving the real world behind

Saw you out driving yesterday
You had the top down in the rain
Now anybody else would take a look at you
And think it's very strange
But all in all you're just who you are
And I hope you never change
But I wonder where you go
When you're in that other world

In another world
You're laughing all the time
In another world

You love the way she looks
You love the things she does
Seems like the best thing
The best there ever was, for you
And all those crazy things
The funny things she says
She ain't like no one else
She's different from the rest, it's true

And if you really want to keep her
There's just one thing to remember

Chorus
And all you got to do, is

When you go out on the town
And she's dressed to kill
Let her know what she's doin for you
That you never get your fill, of her
And you know that she loves you
She's with you all the way
If you keep doing it right
She'll be there everyday, for sure

Chorus
